New Design Asoka Pillar Notes—1950 Issue.

We enclose for your information and guidance a copy of the Press Communique dated the 9th January 1950 giving a description of the various denominations of new design Asoka Pillar Bank notes. These notes will be issued to the public rom the 26th January 1950.

PRESS COMMUNIQUE.

The Reserve Bank of India will issue from the 26th anuary 1950, a new series of Bank notes of all denominations with India's distinctive design of the Asoka Pillar which has een approved by the Central Government under Section 25 f the Reserve Bank of India Act (II of 1934). The existing otes will, however, continue to be legal tender.

A description of the new notes is given below for the nformation of the public :—

Two Rupees—This is an entirely new design, the size eing $4\frac{1}{2}'' \times 2\frac{1}{2}''$ as at present.

Front.—On the left is a blank panel, generally rectangu- ar in shape with a plain double-line border, in which appears he Asoka Pillar watermark. On the right, and enclosed within an irregular-shaped oval panel of white lines and floral ecoration is a representation of the Asoka Pillar capital gainst a shaded background. The serial number of the note ppears in black beneath this panel. The centre of the note s headed by the words Reserve Bank of India in white set in curved, shaded panel followed by the usual promise to pay nderneath, with the signature of the Governor of the Reserve ank of India. The value in both English and Hindi appears n large white shaded letters in the centre of the note and the figure 2 in Arabic and Hindi characters appears in the top-le and top-right hand corners of the note, respectively. Th border of the note consists of an indented double line wi fine geometrical work inside. The main design of the no is printed in red-brown with rainbow tints of blue-gree purple, orange, blue-green and olive-green.

Back.—On the right is a blank watermark panel border by curved double lines and floral work. On the left is circular panel containing a representation of a tiger's he against a shaded background. Below this panel appear th words Two Rupees in large white shaded letters. The cent is headed by the words Reserve Bank of India in white set a curved shaded panel and immediately below and supe imposed on a guilloche, appears the value in Urdu, Hind Bengali, Telugu, Tamil, Kanarese, Gujerati and Oriy Centrally placed at the foot of the note is the Reserve Ban of India Seal with floral supports. The figure 2 in Hindi an Arabic numerals appears in the top-left and top-right han corners of the note, respectively. The border of the no consists of an indented double line with fine geometrical wor inside. The main design is printed in red-brown with rain bow tints of orange, olive-green and purple.

Rupees Five.—The new design is very similar to that the current note, the chief modifications being as follows :—

Front.—The blank panel on the left carries the Asok Pillar watermark while the corresponding panel on the righ carries a representation of the Asoka Pillar capital against shaded background. The purple tint of the present note i replaced by an orange tint and the whole note appears some what bolder as the result of the use of slightly heavier colour

Back.—The brown and blue tint colours are transposed the latter now appearing at the top of the note and th former at the bottom. The value in Oriya script has bee added.

Rupees Ten.—The new design is similar to that of th current note, the chief modifications being as follows :—

Front.—The blank panel on the left carries the Asok Pillar watermark while the corresponding panel on the righ carries a representation of the Asoka Pillar capital against shaded background. The wording of the promise to pay i the centre of the note has been re-arranged slightly in orde to allow the signature of the Governor of the Reserve Banl of India to appear directly beneath it, the panel at the left hand bottom corner now being filled with the word Rupee superimposed on the figure 10 against a geometrical back ground. The tint colours in the centre of the note have beer modified, the most noticeable change being the replacemen of the prominent orange tint by blue. The prefix and seria number are printed in black.

—The only changes are a re-arrangement of the t colours and the addition of the value in Oriya

.—On the left is a blank panel of irregular shape, of a floral border with a vignette which contains the ar watermark. On the right is a panel of similar design containing a representation of the Asoka tal against a shaded background. At the head of nd connecting these two panels is a curved panel the words Reserve Bank of India in bold, shaded, ers. Underneath comes the usual promise to pay avy line tints the words One Hundred Rupees, which ned in a special panel of geometrical work, also old, shaded, white letters. Immediately below the k panel and the corresponding panel on the right, hite lines run right across the note, the space bet- lines being occupied by the signature of the of the Reserve Bank of India in the centre with the serial number of the note printed in black on either e border of the note consists of an indented double fine geometrical work inside. The whole design is osed upon wavy line tint work of oval shape which all the four edges of the note. The main design of s printed in blue with rainbow tints of mauve, n, blue, blue-grey, blue-green, orange and green. designs of this denomination have had the circle of ated on them but this is omitted from the new e necessary identification being done by reference fixes of which separate allotments will be made to ency Office.
